“ Annette, I think of you and your family often. I think of the loss of Curt and how it is affecting your lives. I wish I had the words to make this time less painful but I do not. You are a wonderful person and I know in time your faith will bring you peace. Please call me if I can ever be of help or just someone to talk with or even laugh. “ I am Curt's paternal aunt; his father, Estill, was my brother. I now live in Mansfield, Ohio and am 80 years old.

I was around Curt a lot when he was a child but miles often separates family as we get older and move to different parts of the country.

Curt was always a joy to be around and he will remain in my heart forever. Your family will be in my prayers.
