“ Aunt Cyrilla, you were indeed special. I haven't seen you in a while but we have talked on the phone. I will never forget what a kind sister you were to my mom. You two had some great times lately, all the way from Evansville to Mackinaw and back again! And remember the good times we had at Torch Lake. Rest in peace and tell Uncle Elmer I still miss how funny he was.
How blessed I am having had an aunt Cyrilla and your family, such great caregivers, are in my prayers.##imported-begin##Debbie Ocedek##imported-end##

“ She was my favorite teacher--tough but so kind hearted. A few years ago, I was able to take my daughter trick or treating to her home (it was always one of my favorite spots too). It was wonderful to see her smiling face again. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. She will be greatly missed!##imported-begin##Tracy Huck (Schmitt)##imported-end##

“ Cyrilla was my teacher at St. Wendel in the 1970's. I am so glad that I was able to tell her that I appreciated her teaching when I saw her at the St. Joe social a while back. She was tough, but "drilled" those multiplication tables as they needed to be! It has paid off. She lived a full life and I offer her family my condolences.###imported-begin##Julie (Will) Schapker###imported-end##
