“ Dana always made these little comments that often would be missed by others but I found so dang funny. She made me laugh all the time. I would be the only one laughing, we would look at each other and her eyes would be shining with joy. I loved being around her...and just her. I will look forward to seeing her again.

Dana was a very kind person, I remember when Kaitlyn would spend the night with her papaw at Solarbron where he lived, Dana would come and pick her up, Dana would visit with her dad and we would all hang out a bit and visit, she would go to Hacienda with a group of us who worked at Solarbron, prayers for those left behind, may God wrap his loving arms around everyone and peace that only God can give. ❤️
