“ Dan was living with his Dad when we got married, Sam was glad to have brothers and a sister, it was BTS and Sam wanted jeans like Dan, I bought them only thing they were to short for Sam, he said Dan can wear them, so he went and gave the jeans to Dan and said these are to short for me see if they will fit you, he did next thing Dan is calling Ben, guess what? All my life I had hand me downs from you , now this red headed kids living here, and now it's hand me ups, I get stuff from both directions . It was so funny to hear him fuss, brother stuff, but it made Sam feel at home, Dan was a good brother and a good son to us, we will miss him

“ Danny was a classmate at Harrison High School and we were in a number of classes together over the years. Danny had a great sense of humor and, to this day, the neatest printed writing of anyone I have ever met. I moved out of state in 1980, but all my happy childhood memories are from Evansville and Danny is one of them. Please accept my condolences.

*Ben and Nan,
I remember Danny so well from high school and from family gatherings at Ben and Nan's. I had such a big crush on him my freshman year that I would walk home from Harrison just to walk with Danny. I also remember him spending a lot of time at Arc Lanes. Then later on when he would come to gatherings you had at your house, he was always so kind and nice and it was fun to talk to Danny about our high school days. He had a great sense of humor. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Danny will be truly missed.*

“ I am so sorry to hear of Danny's passing. I remember him walking off to Harrison, each morning, in that Army Green jacket that was almost too big for him. When I asked his Mom about it, she told me that he LOVED that jacket. I remember when he won the Pinball contest at the arcade in Washington Square. He WAS the "Pinball Wizard"! Years later I purchased a used pinball machine. Saw him once when he visited his Mom. Told him that I had a pinball machine and invited him in to see it. He came over, exclaimed that it was just like the one that he had won the contest on, and played a couple of games. I remember how sweet and kind he always was. He was one of a family of neighbors that I loved and still miss. Wish that I could be with you for the celebration of his life. My prayers are being said for all of you.

“ Uncle Danny was a special person, and an absolute joy who brought light and laughter to this world. May his light always guide the way to all who loved him, and his laughter fill our hearts with love forever.

Love always,.
