

Darcy Lynn DeKemper

March 8, 1961 - April 7, 2026

Darcy Lynn (Osborne) DeKemper was a beloved daughter, wife, sister, mother, aunt, and grandmother. Darcy passed away on April 7th surrounded by love. Darcy was born to Carl and Melba Osborne on March 8th, 1961, in Wilmington, Delaware.

Darcy was preceded in death by her mother and father. She is survived by her husband, Darrell DeKemper; brother, Russell (Tabatha) Osborne; daughters, Rachele (Craig) Macke and Amber (Scott) Douglas; grandchildren: Daisy, Evelyn, Stella, Leylin, Margaret, and Xavier; nieces, Shea Ochoa and Morgan Nordby; great nieces and nephew; and her much loved animals, Odie and Garfield.

Darcy lived all over the country throughout her life before eventually settling in Indiana. To know her was to know unconditional love - she gave it freely, deeply, and without hesitation. She worked hard throughout her life, always putting others before herself, and found her greatest joy in time spent with her family and friends. Darcy loved playing competitive card games, cooking a nice homemade meal, watching one of her favorite movies, and cheering on her beloved Pittsburgh Steelers. She especially cherished afternoons spent shopping and sharing lunch with her grandchildren, creating memories that will be held close forever. She had a way of making everyone feel seen, cared for, and at home. Her love touched countless lives, and the space she leaves behind cannot be filled. She will be deeply and forever missed.

“ I remember the day I told Darcy I had a litter mm of puos. She went back and forth wanting g and no5 wanting. Then she came in a happy and smiles. So each day I would text and send her pictures of Odie.

Before he went to his mum Odie answered to his name.

When I took that red bone pup to her. She was so in love and crying happybtwars she had her Odie and Garfield . I am glad t I have worked and spent a long time building a friendship. This will be so many memes to many. But the best was letting her have that puppy Odie she so loved him. Last Christine she sent me a picture of that sweet pup.

Will love and miss you my dear friend.

May God hold your family in his graceful arms I. The time of need right now

“ I remember a time when Darcy and I crawled around under mom and dad's porch trying to catch a stray cats kittens. 🐾 We eventually caught them, fed them with Darcy buying chicken and cooking it. She cooked three meals a day for those kittens. They thrived and survived with us finding them homes. I remember making her a Pittsburgh Steelers for Christmas one year and she insisted on keeping it in the house so the birds wouldn't destroy it 😊 Darcy was fun and a wonderful sister in law and I loved her dearly. I'm gonna miss you sister , rest easy now ❤️
