“ I knew Dave when we were boys in the 50's. I lived at 525 N. Red Bank Rd. then, and Dave and I were good friends. We did all the typical boy things of that decade, and especially enjoyed using his Dad's real U.S. Army field phones from World War Two, when we played Army. We were at each other's houses quite a lot during the years 1956-1963, when I moved in town on Reitz Hill. Beyond that point our lives moved in different directions, but I will always cherish the childhood memories of sledding, fishing, bicycle riding, and just being boys that I shared with Dave. My sincere condolences to all his friends and family members. I am very sorry he left you all so early.
