“ I just found out about Dave's passing. He was my dad's (Ken Newcomb) best friend for years. I remember them eating breakfast almost every day at Bob Evans. He was a good man.

“ My brothers and I just learned of David's passing today, so here is a late tribute. David played baseball with the Jasper Reds, with our father, Chick Alles. We think the years he played were 1960, 1961, and 1962. He was a very talented baseball player, a power hitter, and good fielder. We remember one particular play he made. It took place in English, Indiana. The Jasper Reds were playing against English. At that time (we think the year was 1962) the head a the English team was a very rich man, the richest man in Crawford County. He spent a lot of money to bring in good baseball players from many miles away to play for his team. David was playing left field for the Reds. One of the English players hit a smash line drive to left. David raced back to the fence and reached up and caught the ball just before it would have sailed over the fence. Unfortunately the owner of that English team had not spent a lot of money on the fence. It was basically a very flimsy chicken wire type of fence. David's momentum carried him against that fence and it collapsed. The owner of the English team came out to the umpire and argued that the catch should be ruled a home run. Unfortunately the umpire disallowed David's fine catch and changed the ruling to a home run. Your family can be proud of David's tremendous record of many years officiating high school sports games. His work as an official enabled thousands of high school students to play their favorite sports. Our condolences to David's family from the Alles brothers, Joe, Bob, Bill, Tom, and Jerry.
