

David Lee Stoneberger

May 28, 1957 - February 27, 2025

David Lee Stoneberger, 67, of Evansville, passed away on Thursday, February 27, 2025, at Deaconess Hospital Midtown Campus.

David was born on May 28, 1957, in Evansville to the late Dorothy (White) Stoneberger Danny A. Stoneberger, Sr. He worked as a machine shop operator at A.L. Frederick Company. David was an avid billiards player and enjoyed playing in billiards tournaments, riding his motorcycle and going to bike week in Daytona. He also enjoyed karaoke and was known as Stoney-oke.

Surviving David are his father and bonus mother, Danny Stoneberger, Sr and Earleen Stoneberger; his siblings and their spouses, Danny and Jill Stoneberger, Jr, Donna and Jeff Splittorff, and Eric and Liza Stoneberger; his loving companion, Pam Mathis; nephews, Adam (Katie), Aaron (Nakita), Andrew (Cassie), Ryan, Jason (Nicie), Justin (Rinna) and Cayden and a niece, Lorelei. Also surviving are Pam's children, Conner Faver and Kaula Ford and Pam's grandchildren, Delilah, Everett and Amillea.

Funeral services and a celebration of life will be held at a later date. Burial will take place in Memorial Park Cemetery.

“ RIP STONEY! You were such a funny and kind person and could put a smile on anyone's face. Upon hearing the tragic news of your passing... the thought came to me that Budweiser has lost their greatest advertiser/spokesperson. I couldn't help but to smile at the memories of you and your Budweiser photobombing every photo ever taken at a Stockyard pool tourney! Good times, good memories! RIH old friend!
