“ *Jim and I were so saddened with the loss of David for not only you but the whole family. He was truly a beautiful person with the most wonderful smile that could light up a room and touch your soul. We enjoyed your visits so much each year and I think David and Jim took great delight in fishing off our dock til the sun was almost ready to set. He will be missed but we hope the memories of your time together will add a smile, a laugh and a warmth to ease your pain and lift you up in the months and years to come. “ Bill and I grew to know David over the past couple of years. During that time he became a much treasured friend. Many many weeks found David, Sharon, Bill and I together as movie buddies. David was a true connoisseur of great movies who remembered great movies over the years.

It is my prayer that Sharon's life will always be enriched by the love that she and David shared.###imported-begin###Bill and Helen Sands###imported-end##
