“ So very sorry to hear of Dodie's passing. I knew her through bowling at Franklin Lanes, always with a smile and contagious laugh! When I would pick up my ball to bowl, she would make a big X on my back for the strike we both hoped I would throw. She will live forever in my heart and memories. ❤️

“ So sorry for your loss. I've enjoyed working and bowling with her through the years. I feel she took me under her wing when I first started at Mead Johnson's. I got to go to Texas to a bowling tournament. She's always so much fun to be around. She will be missed. I've included a pic of Dodie "riding a bull" in Texas.
