“ Delores was a college friend of mine. I remember car pooling together when she taught me all the backroads to ISUE. We enjoyed several Math classes together as we shared college life. I'm sorry we didn't get together over the years.

“ The loss of Delores has brought back so many memories of living across the road from her & her family. Her little sister, Dianna & I became best friends so I was at the house a lot. She made long red skirts for Dianna & I to wear to midnight mass one year. She drove us to drivers education one summer, sat in her car & studied until we were done. Delores put up with Dianna, Ida & I spending the night, all of us piled into their bedroom, giggling all night. She tolerated us, always with a smile, that’s for sure. Thank you for the memories, Delores.
I’m sending love & prayers to the Pritchett family. God bless all of you.
