“ I have procrastinated posting this condolence, hoping in doing so, it would mean my dearest friend of 60 years, had not left this mortal coil, and I could just pick up my phone and call or text her about something as trivial as my current hair color, and would get back a funny reply. This, of course, is never going to happen again, and my grief is profound and unending. I have lost the sweetest, most compassionate, loving, generous, and funniest friend a person could possibly have. I thank God every day that I was lucky enough to have her in my life for so long, and my heart goes out to her family, who also lost this wonderful, special lady and is grieving as much as I am. Diana, give Linda a hug for me, and I will see you again someday. I love you!

“ I will always remember all the fun we had playing yatzee and cards and the times we went to the Fall Festival. I will never forget you dear friend. You and Linda have fun in heaven and I'll see you again.
