“ Dorothy is a very special person to me. I've been quilting with her for over 20 years. We worked in the kitchen together during the Fall Festival for 17+ years. Always full of good advice and plenty of good laughs. She will be missed !!! She's probably telling Ester Petrig and Carol Griesebacher all the quilting stories right now! She's reunited with her husband, Harold and her daughter Barb!!!

“ Dorothy was the Wednesday coach/coordinator for the Resurrection Parish Adoration Chapel for many, many years. She and I shared the 7 am Holy Hour slot for many years, until I had to move to an afternoon slot. I appreciated Dorothy's spiritual luminosity. She always had a smile on her face. Every day I pass her home, and I am confident I will continue to see her luminous smile in my mind's eye. I am thankful to have known her.
