“ Bob and Karen: I want to thank you for taking such good and loving care of our Dorothy. She was a very special person and has left a vacant spot on this earth. It isn't everyone, who would give such good care to a person for many years. Bob you have fulfilled your promise to your father. I thank the both of you with all my heart for loving and caring for Dorothy.

“ Dorothy I will miss our Sunday dinners together. I really enjoyed visiting with you and sharing a meal. You have left many good memories and a lot of love in many hearts. I know you are with Dalton and you will have a Very Merry Christmas. I will miss you my friend and I am so honored we crossed paths in this life. Until I see you on the other side - save me a good spot! Love you Dorothy

“ My sympathy to Bob and Karen Dallas and Dorothy's family on her passing. I have had the privilege of having Dorothy volunteer for me years ago when she helped to assemble Red Cross newsletters. Then she was a member of the church I have worked in for 13 years. She was a very sweet lady and will be greatly missed.
