“ So sorry to hear the sad news. I have nothing but wonderful memories when thinking of Doug and the whole Schapker family. Growing up across the street, I'll never forget watching Doug come and go in those fancy cars and cool motorcycles. Through the years, any time our paths would cross, Doug always made me smile and I enjoyed talking with him. May the entire family find peace and comfort in this difficult time.

“ I worked with Doug at Schnucks Walgreens after returning to Evansville from New Orleans in the late 70's. He was a young man working in the Dairy/frozen department. Doug had such a fantastic work ethic. He was an amazing energetic person with personality plus. It was a blessing to have had the distinct pleasure of working with Doug. He was one of the worlds good ones. I'm so sorry for his friends and loved ones who must deal with his passing. 💜💔
