“ There are alot of words I could use, but they wouldn't do the job. I'll miss the visits, the breakfasts, the butt dials and I'll miss joking and laughing with my pal. Ed and Wina were some of the greatest people that got put in my life and I'll always be thankful I had them!

“ Always looked forward to seeing our Uncle Ed. One of a kind indeed. Remembering fondly those visits he and Alwina made to St Louis and good times catching up in Evansville or visits to us here in Arkansas. That twinkle in the eye and wry grin always let you know that he was either in on the joke or about to crack one. You never had a problem wondering what Ed thought about things. He told you. We will all miss him. Thinking of my cousins Mark, Chad and Scot and families.
