I met Dr. Ed as a new patient shortly before he moved to St. Vincent - he was incredibly friendly, helpful, warm, and thorough. I was struck by how genuinely interested he seemed to be in his patients, and by how much he wanted to help. He was a wonderful doctor and person - I'm so very sorry.

“ Uncle Bibot was a classic good guy. I didn't get a chance to spend a lot of time with him, but you didn't need to to see what a kind and assuming guy he was. I remember him in the Daisy Avenue house in his a muscle shirt and reading a textbook in the middle of the action of the dining room. He dropped us off at the bus station in Cleveland as we went back to Oklahoma, giving us spending money for the trip home.

He was one of the good ones, and it's too bad the world will no longer be graced by him.

“ I had the great privilege and honor of getting to know and work with Dr. Lagunzad during the recruitment and onboarding process when he joined the St. Vincent Urgent Care provider team. I remember how he was so very genuinely concerned about "leaving" his patients from his existing practice. As a member of our physician team, Dr. Lagunzad was just a true joy to work with. He was such a humble and kind human being in every sense of the word. Since he began covering shifts for us initially in a prn capacity, there were many times I had to call Dr. Lagunzad to see if he would be able to cover a shift. He was always so pleasant and gracious during these calls. Even more of a blessing, after I had called to ask for his assistance in covering a shift, he without exception, would end the call by thanking me for calling and would say he was honored to get to work with me and the team at St. Vincent. Well Dr. Ed, let me just turn that back around and tell you again that it was indeed our great honor to have had the opportunity to work with you. I will remember you with great respect and as a man of humility, a joy-filled spirit, and sound character. I send my sincere sympathy to Julie and Dr. Lagunzad's entire family during this time of significant and untimely loss.

“ It breaks my heart that such a good man has passed. Dr. Ed and I worked together when I was growing my wings at ECHO Community Health Care. He was beyond intelligent, so energetic, compassionate and had such a sense of humor. I can't think about my first social work job at ECHO without thinking of him. Rarely was there a day that he didn't have everyone laughing hysterically. He was such a wealth of knowledge with a mischievous smile that you couldn't miss. He loved his family and cared immensely about his patients. Heaven better be prepared, laughter is inevitable.

“ I met Dr Ed 20 years ago when we were both working at Echo then again when we were both working at Urgent Care. He was so smart and always so cheerful. I never saw him have a bad day. I always smiled if I saw we were working together. I will miss being called Sherble. God has a fabulous new angel.

“ Dr. Ed will always hold a special place in my heart. He was my coworker & Dr. He was the best of both, and one of the best people I've ever had the pleasure of knowing. I'm so glad I got to see him by chance a few times at urgent care after I lost him as a coworker. His wit, humor and genuine concern for people is so hard to come by. A wonderful soul gone too soon. I hope when we meet again I'll get to hear, "whatcha up to?" again. Praying for his family and loved ones.

“ *Dr Ed was a wonderful MD, I will always remember the care he gave my daughter, when she arrived to UCW with a fish stuck in her finger. Dr. Ed joked around asking how the heck that happened, knowing it was from a homemade fish pond and being a topical fish he made sure she got the attention and care she needed. Still from this day, he remembered her fish story and every time he saw myself or her, he always wanted to know if she been fishing again. I just loved Dr Ed, his kindness, wisdom, and love for everyone was higher than the highest mountains. My thoughts and prayers are with the entire family during this time.
