“ I graduated with Ed and have a lot memories of him. Driving around listening to Grand Funk's American Band on 8 track, burnouts in his 55 or 56 Chevy on Downen Road, our bicycle ride to Henderson, his Hodaka Super Rat, and lots more. I lost track of him years ago and went to Maunee a couple of times last fall trying to find him, not knowing that he had moved to Norris City. I'm sorry to the family that you've lost him. He was a great guy, we laughed a lot and had a lot of fun. We'll all miss him.

Thank you, Steve, for sharing your fond memories. I remember how close you and Edward were. So sorry you lost touch. We all grew up and moved away and time & distance separate us from those we were once so close with. Like you, my best memories were from when we young. Hope you and yours are well. -Julie
