“ Although I knew Eddie well, we never worked together at GE/SABIC. We worked together at a grocery store. We were both chosen to be night managers. Before that we grew up in the same neighborhood. Eddie was a man of impeccable character and dedicated to family. To Eddie's family, his wife, son and daughters we are sorry for your loss. We also offer our condolences to his extended family that his brother John and sister-in-law Debbie. Rest in peace Eddie.

I worked with Ed at GE Sabic as a computer rep beginning in the early 90's. We became friends at once. How could you not? He and his family always welcomed me and any of our team to their home whenever we were in town. I will miss our yearly birthday calls. His was Nov 18th, mine Nov 19th, and he would razz me if I forgot. He never forgot. Dear Brenda, Jane, Charlie, Carol, and John, I am so sorry for our loss. He was the nicest, most caring, and most genuine person I have had the honor to know. God bless you all.
