“ I loved my only surviving maternal aunt Eileen ever since first meeting her when I was about 7 and she was about 9. I sat with her in her double-seat in the one room schoolhouse that had been donated and built by Grandpa Hunt on his acreage in the early 1900s. Mom went to that school and quit in fourth grade to go to work to fund the other kids' education. Eileen's original name was Ilene, Mom's was Eula, and she changed hers to Eulah for a while. Ilene was born 9-21-1922 but Grandpa recorded it the 22d. Grandma named Guy Hayward, but Grandpa left off the Hayward because he didn't like "Hayward." My deepest sympathy to all the family.##imported-begin##Melba Vickery##imported-end##
