“ Dear Nurrenbern family,
I had the privilege of taking care of Emma for several years at Solarbron. I loved her dearly. She raised a large family and I was from a large family and we shared stories for hours at a time. She loved you all so much; I never tired of hearing her talk about all of you. She would tell me of how, when you were all so young, she would get everyone ready after breakfast, pack coolers of drinks and sandwiches, put everyone onto the cart at the back of the plow and find a grove of shade trees for you to play in while she farmed for the day. She spoke of it so reverently; never a hint of complaint or pity for herself. She had such a terrific sence of humor. We would laugh ourselves silly at times and she never failed to have a twinkle in her eye when she spoke of her family. My sainted Irish grandmother always said that a loved one who passed on was now "playing with the angels". I have no doubt that Emma is doing just that; and thouroughly entertaining them as well. Thank you so very much for the opportunity to know and care for your dear mother. I think of her often and shall conotinue to keep her - and all of you - in my prayers. May the Lord bless you all now and until we see her again. Sincerely, Diane Collins##imported-begin##Diane Collins##imported-end##
