“ To Emma Jean's Children and Their Families,

I am so sorry for this monumental loss. I understand the pain and sorrow you feel and know there are no words to properly express to you all how sorry I am.

Jackie...I deeply apologize that I did not find out about Aunt Emma Jean's passing until last night, Saturday, September 7th, and the information given to me was that she would be shown Monday the 9th and the funeral was to be Tuesday the 10th. I checked the online obits first thing this morning and realized I was given the incorrect dates. I so wanted to be there. I don't receive a newspaper and regret not having the opportunity to pay my last respects and see all of you together. Please let the family know in case they do not read this.

In these difficult times it is sometimes tough to focus on God, but God is still God and God is still good. Lean on him and he will carry you through this and any other difficult times.

“ *Dear Wolf family, wanted to tell all of you that I was very saddened to learn of Emma Jean's passing. She was a lovely woman who I know took great pride in her family. Surely she will be missed by so many but what a wonderful legacy she has left behind in all of you and your families. Prayers and thoughts are with all of you.
