“ I was only in Esther's life a short time but she left a lasting impression with me. She was the most caring and forgiving woman I have met. She was kind to all. It was a pleasure to know her and her family. She will always be in my prayers.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Aunt Ester's death. She was so dear so strong and so funny. I remember her doing an imitation of my dad and Aunt Geri's voice when he tried to sell a ceramic rooster to a family member that another family member had given him as a gift. She endured a lot of sorrow in her life with great dignity. I still remember when she came to see me in a rather controversial play. She loved it and said "Your mother would kill you if she were still around today." Her children and grandchildren were her pride and joy. Take care everyone.
