“ R.I.P. Gene, until we meet again. Thanks for your brotherly love but most of all the memories you helped me make of you over the years. I cherish the phone conversations we shared over the years and the wisdom you shared with me. We had some deep conversations and I know where you are now based on your faith you shared with me. Until we meet again brother, all I can say is save me a seat at the table for the “Marriage Supper of The Lamb”.

“ Uncle Gene, I am so glad I got to see your sweet face and hear that voice a few months ago! You were such a sweet soul. My cousins, Aunt Leva, I am so sorry for the loss of your sweet dad, husband, and grandpa/great grandpa to his grands. It's so sad to say goodbye, but I like to picture our loved ones in Heaven. Healthy and overjoyed, seeing loved ones and in the arms of our Lord. Uncle Gene and Aunt Leva use to babysit me many moons ago. One memory they always brought up (and Uncle Gene just did in September) is how I use to put my behind in his screen door and wait for my mom. I busted the screen out constantly. He replaced them with love, of course. I love you and will miss you. Until we meet again.....
