“ Dear Frances...

I have never met you but through your beloved Gary, he has expressed to me what a beautiful and loving woman you were to him and to your son Heath. I know he thinks about you every moment of every day and he misses you more than you will ever imagine. He has told me such touching stories of your life you spent together. Together as "one", your souls connected through eternity. A love like you shared with Gary is so unique and oh so special. I love listening to Gary tell me of how precious your commitment to each other was and even though you have left this earth to sit next to Jesus, I know you are watching down with your caring eyes keeping Gary and Heath safe. I hope Gary continues to tell me such beautiful stories about you and your beautiful love story you had with Gary

I know he misses you so very much,..... and that is why you will always hold such lovely memories within your heart forever of Frances,..your amazing woman...

“ I love you Frances. You have always been like a sister to me and I will remember you that way. I know you are with me in spirit and you verified that to me tonight. When I got off work and was thinking about you when I was walking to my car I got in, turned the radio on and Stevie Nick's was on and I couldn't believe it. I haven't heard that on the radio in forever and I know that was you letting me know you are okay and still with me. Rest in peace Angel. Until we meet again. Xoxo

You were always beautiful, inside and out. I'm sorry we lost touch. I'll never forget the fun we had growing up and visiting your Grandma.

“ I wish I could have made things right. I'm so torn up over this. I love you, Fran, and will see you in paradise away from this world full of pain and sorrow. You're dancing with my mom, your sister and with your dad and mom, my mamaw and papaw and most importantly, with Jesus, our loving Lord and Savior who made heaven possible for us lowly humans. Fly high, Aunt. Will see you again, because I know you believed and love the Lord.

Gary, thank you for being a great man to her. I know we had a fall out, and I will say that I was wrong on some levels and I'm sorry. I wish I could turn back the hands of time and make things right. All I can do now is extend a white flag for hers and Heath's sake. I've sat and thought about things ALOT and have wished things were different. Then I didn't get to see Fran when my mom passed and it saddened me. Now this. 😞... I'm falling apart on the inside.

Josh Lindenschmidt - January 21, 2020 at 08:02 PM

Heath, I love you soooo much, cousin and I am so sorry for EVERYTHING. I mean everything I said. I know how it feels to lose a mom and I hate this for you so much. Please know that though the pain won't go away, it does get easier. I love you so much, cousin and hope we can reunite in peace. Love you so much.

Josh Lindenschmidt - January 21, 2020 at 08:04 PM

Gary, also, you've been a great father figure for Heath. You're exactly who he needed in his life after Mark passed away, and I know you'll continue to be there for him after all this. I hope the healing process goes as smooth as it can, if that's even possible. I wish I could've spoken to her in person and told her how I feel. I've been missing her for the longest time and now I can't, in THIS life, see her and make things right.

I will be praying for you and for Heath and Mickey as well. I love you guys, and I just wish you knew what's in my mind and how I feel. It hurts so bad. So much regret, man. Even now I just want to give it to God, for HE is the true Healer. Prayers for you and you'll be on my mind, the both of you. I hope you guys will hang in there and be strong. It's not easy by any means, but it is something we have to face and work on day by day. Love you guys and hope this finds you all in peace.

Josh Lindenschmidt - January 21, 2020 at 09:20 PM

Fran, I didn't know you well but what I knew of you was good. All you kids you, Tina, Trish, Tim Leroy, Brad, Timmy Moffitt. You were like the 6 amigos always together. Just hangin and having a good time. My prayers and thoughts are with your family. Especially Heath at this time. May god lead him thru this and help him this trying time.
