“ I met Frances at Little Sisters/University Nursing Home over 10 years ago when I started to volunteer there with the St Joseph Auxiliary. I had the opportunity to get to know her better when I started working at the country store. It was always a pleasure to see her and visit with her when she came in to get her usual 10 mini Reese's cups. She also liked tic tacs. She was a joy to be around. She had a cute sense of humor. And she always had a good time at Bunco when we used to meet one Saturday a month. My condolences to the family. I will truly miss this lovely woman. She was a blessing.

“ Will miss our wonderful and spunky Aunt Frances. Great memories we have with all the Muenstermans at Burdette Park. Also coming to their home on Franklin St. and watching Disney while the Aunts and Uncles played cards. Miss You Lover Sherry
