“ I met George about six months ago, when my dad, Harry Thompson, became one of his table mates at Solarbron. I have had supper with George, Leroy, and Harry on many a Wednesday since that time.

George always laughed at my stories and usually was looking for something to smile about. He had a running gag going with the servers, and their affection for him was obvious. When his coffee cup ran low and he thought the servers were too slow to bring a refill, he would rattle his cup against the saucer. It made a thoroughly irritating noise, but always got him what he wanted.

Leroy told us this week that he had lost a good friend in George. I will miss his humor and warm welcome. Please accept my sorrow at your loss.##imported-begin##Sue Morrison##imported-end##

“ We will miss George so much. He and Arvilla were so special to us when we moved to the area. I so enjoyed going over and visiting with both. Whenever we had a problem, George was always there to give us a helping hand, even when I presented him with a baby deer. He said he enjoyed it, but don't ever do it again! We always had a lot of laughs over the dining room table. They both will be dearly missed.##imported-begin##C J & Don Mayhew##imported-end##
