“ I and my wife bumped into Jerry a few months ago and He said He was finely going to retire with his big usual smile! We wished Him a happy retirement. We talked, He asked about my kids as usual. I said they weren't kids, now 39 and 37, He asked were time had gone and we all laughed! Our thoughts and prayers with his family and friends.

“ Jerry was great to my parents, Mike and Judy Brown who also attended St. Agnes Church, and also to myself. I have a lot of good memories from my childhood of attending the spot shoots with my dad, while he worked along side of Jerry. I will always remember him taking about his Chicago Bears. Thoughts and prayers to his friends and family.
