“ Quite simply Gregg was my best friend for many years. We took care of each other on so many occasions. Gregg was just a great soul. So sad he left us in this life but so glad he was a big part of mine. In the end, he gave it all. His love for his family and those closest to him was immeasurable. Love ya Gregg. Find peace brother.

“ Eric and Kim,
Thank you for posting all the photos of Greg through the years. It's a snapshot of a life well lived. He is an absolute legend. I'll always have good memories of him growing up and being a good Dad. He gave such a good example to live by. I'm sorry for your loss. These wounds will heal but the scar remains and reminds us of how good he was to us. Love you guys so much.

“ Gregg was a truly wonderful person; a devoted husband and caregiver to his wife Rebecca, a proud and loving father and grandfather. So sad to see his life cut short. I will be out of the country on Monday, otherwise I wouldn't think of missing the service to honor him and his family with my attendance at his service.
