“ We're so sorry for your family's loss. We live across the Street from Greg and he was always so pleasant to speak with. Often, we'd wave to each other, while on our lawn mowers. While we send healing prayers and comforting hugs, I hope you can find some peace. We never really lose those loved ones who pass, for some day we'll be reunited. When we too, just like Greg, become an Angel.

*Don't hesitate to reach out if there is anything my family can do.

“ I worked closely with Greg at the Machinists' Hall for nearly 30 years and he was such a special guy. We worked together on union and political projects and spent a lot of lunches and laughs together. He got to know my little family and they, and I, will miss him dearly. May you find peace and comfort in each other and in your wonderful memories of Greg. Kathy Cockerham, Ed, Miranda, and Elaine
