“ *Nancy and family,
My mother, Shirley Clark, sent me a copy of your dad's obituary. I am so sorry for your loss. I really enjoyed knowing your dad as my principal in high school. He was always fair and had a great personality. I know you will all miss him.
My mom was taken to the hospital this morning with congestive heart failure and is not doing well. We'll probably be heading to IN from WA today.
You are in our prayers.

“ Mr. Buck was my 8th grade teacher at West Heights School in 1949-50. I can count on one hand the teachers who inspired me and encouraged me. Mr. Buck would be at the top of that list. I am saddened by his passing. My condolences to his family; know that he will be missed.##imported-begin##Patricia Embrey Pierce##imported-end##

“ Tom, we are so sorry. Reading your Dad's obituary, I couldn't help but think how much I would have enjoyed meeting him. Saturday, the day of his funeral, was just designated "Spirit of '45 Day" by the U.S. House and Senate to honor the 65th Anniversary of the end of World War II and the generation that sacrificed so selflessly in winning that war. I think your Dad would have been part of that with his Navy background, so we salute him and thank him for his service to our country.

God bless you, Cathy, the children. You have another angel in heaven watching over you, Tom. And once again, he is reunited with your Mother. That is a peace you can keep in your own heart. Thinking of you.##imported-begin##Philip and Brigitt Caito##imported-end##
