

Helen McGregor

August 12, 1915 - September 7, 2011

Helen E. McGregor, of Evansville, passed away Wednesday, September 7, 2011, at The Plaza in Dallas, Texas. She died peacefully in her sleep with her children nearby following an extended battle with Alzheimer's Disease.

Helen has been an active member of the Evansville community since she moved here with her family in 1966. A former teacher and librarian at University of Southern Indiana, she also worked as a volunteer for a number of years for the Red Cross in Evansville as well as in various capacities for several other volunteer organizations. Helen was a member of St. Paul's United Church of Christ on Big Cynthiana Road where she was active in the Young at Heart Club in addition to many other church-related activities.

Although she thoroughly enjoyed the companionship of her many close friends, Helen was the happiest when in the company of her children, grandchildren, and her great-grandchildren. She was a devoted and loving wife, mother, and grandmother, preceded in death by her husband of 30 years, Ralph, in 1983. She is survived by her children, Marilou Borries and Jackie and John Garner of Dallas, by her 4 grandchildren Paul and Blair Borries and John and Todd Garner, and by 3 great-grandchildren. She will be greatly missed.

Friends may visit with the family from 11:00 A.M. until 12:30 P.M. on Monday,

September 12, 2011 at St. Paul's United Church of Christ on Big Cynthiana Road. Funeral services will follow at 12:30 p.m. at the church, Rev. Daniel Sather officiating. Burial will follow in the St. Paul's Church cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society in Helen's name.
