“ *To the family of Henry(Hank) Beck;
Please accept my condolences at this time of your loss. When I first came to Evansville several years ago, I settled on the West side and found my way to the Donut Bank on St. Joe where I got to know Hank and several other folks. I didn't stay a West Sider and eventually found a piece of property to purchase on the East side. Always enjoyed talking with Hank; a good union man whose heart was always in the right place.
Again, please accept my condolences for your loss.*
