“ Dear Sean and Josh and families—
Where does one begin? jackie was such a lady of so many great traits!
We were not friends in high school, but became friends through class reunions and especially our MD Girls lunches! Jackie and I also had spur of the moment meals together when I came to EVV to caregive to my mother and my aunt. She helped me tremendously when I cleared out my mother’s house to sell.
I treated her to lunch at Hilltop plus insisted that she take items that she could use or liked. She also suggested take linens and bedding to House of Bread and Peace and went with me to do so.
Jackie and Jim were true servants of the Lord while on this Earth. May they now be reunited in eternal rest and peace which they so deserve in our Lord and Savior.
