“ Jim meant so much to our family, especially my mother who said Uncle Wilfred's kids were like her own kids. One of the best memories of Jim I had was a get-together at a nursing home for all the aunts (except, of course Aunts Helen and Matilda). Barbara brought Aunt Elnora (I think, or she came on her own) and Jimmy mentioned that it was 25 years ago that her father had passed away. We then spent the next ten or fifteen minutes talking about her father. To show Barbara that her father had not been forgotten (after 25 years) shows the depth of Jimmy's thoughtfulness for other people.
