“ I had an internship at Heritage during my undergraduate college degree and always loved coming to talk to James and Carolyn when I had any free time. I went to North High School and he would always give me a hard time about how Reitz was so much better and how I needed to move to the West side. Rest In Peace, James, and condolences to Carolyn.

“ That picture was how Jim always looked...never without a smile. You would have a hard time finding a nicer person. See you again someday my friend!

“ I worked at Guardian from 1987 to 1999 and Jim is one of my good memories from that time. Our jobs crossed daily so we had lots of contact. I never saw him get upset; he was the most even-keeled person I've met. He had everyone's respect and friendship. The world has lost a great guy. My sincere condolences to his family.
