“ My cousin Tim was a great friend and mentor, whom I will truly miss!

He was also quite the photographer from way back in the wet film processing days. He started a tradition of e-mailing sunset photos to his friends and family. I think it is fitting to share one of the last sunsets that he sent me.

Rest in peace dear Tim.

“ I had the honor and privilege to be one of his physicians for many years. His courage and honesty was always impressive as he battled through his health challenges. His dry sense of humor and ability to handle so many health changes was a testament to his strong personality and wit. I will miss our visits.
