“ Wish I could edit my initial remarks to add Jim & Jane rescued Amber & she was in such terrible shape when they initially got her. I also wanted to add Jim was so very proud of his daughter, Mary. He would never get tired of telling me about her accomplishments & his astonishment at her intelligence.

“ I was privileged to met Jim through his Aunt Patricia Blair. He was a good man with a "wicked" sense of humor. I enjoyed the conversations we had over the years. I never got tired of hearing the stories he'd tell me about Amber, the dog he & his wife Jane. He was a good man & will be greatly missed. He was the younger brother I never had. RIP Jim
