“ Almadell, Jimmy-

My prayers are with you. It is hard to lose a dad, I know, it was the hardest thing I ever had to do. Even after time passes and I get stronger there are times I still wish I could just talk, touch or see him. He is in Heaven with Jesus and so is Jim. One of the greatest guys with the most wonderful wife, Almadell.

Almadell and Jim are a true of example of what parents and husbands and wives should be. No matter how tough the road they stuck it out. True Christians who lived their lives as God would have them to live.

I will always remember how Monica loved to go with Jim when he was going to the "dump". We thought it was funny. But he brought much joy to her just because he showed her love and attention. May God be with you as the days go by and God gives you the strenth and healing that he always supplies even when we don't even realize it. I love you all. “ *Jim and Ruth,
My thoughts and prayers are with you both. Having lost my father, I know what you must be feeling. The memories grow sweeter as time goes on.
You helped me through a very difficult time. May your faith in God and family help you in the coming months and years.

“ Jim

I am so sorry for your loss. A Father is an extremely important part of a person's life and what they bring to your life is irreplaceable.

Please know that my prayers, and that of many, many others are with both you and Ruth.

“ Dearest Almadell: My memories of you and Jim are loving, fun and greatly appreciated. Oh my, the times of fun and hard work hours at the First Church of God Fall Festival booth was so uplifting that the tired feet and aching backs were foregotten when Jim was around. He was a an all around great guy and someone who carried his faith and love of of the Lord on his shoulder and was not shy about sharing this with others. If in life an individual has crossed paths with Jim and Almadell Baize, they surly were greatly blessed. For the good that Jim always bestowed to others please feel great for Jim has a wonderful mansion and the Pearly Gates rang when God took him home. Our and prayers go out to you and your loving family.
