“ Jeff, Rachel and Emily - Treasure in your hearts the memories that Jane left behind as we will.....The memories of getting in the big motor home and going to Tutoni's in Illinois and stopping by the Old Dam in New Harmony. "SKI Day on the Ohio" at its inception - such FUN! Holiday World when the girls were toddlers. And her handwritten Cheese Potato Soup recipe that she shared at one of the gatherings at your house.

Jane was such a joy to be around. We will miss you "FRED".

“ As Jane Stone Raben's former teacher, I was greatly saddened to learn of the passing of one of my favorite students. She was a beautiful young lady on the outside and the inside as well She was always a delight in her sometimes goofy way. She was well liked by all her peers, and that laugh sure was infectious. My deepest sympathy goes out to her children and her family. At last, she has the peace that alluded her here.##imported-begin##don stansberry##imported-end##

“ I remember Jane limping into work one morning and confessing that she had sprained her ankle during an enthusiastic dance to "Funky Town". What a good laugh we all had about that!
That's what I'll always remember, Jane's infectious laugh, her wonderful sense of humor and her willingness to go the extra mile for her friends and family. I'll miss you Jane.....##imported-begin##Jeanna Billings##imported-end##
