“ Scott and Julie Stephens wish to give prayers and condolences to the family. Jan was a loving, caring, kind person with an an "attitude". I don't know how she managed to do all the things she did. I enjoyed helping at the butcher shop and listening to all her stories. Emma would go to the butcher shop with Scott just to eat the fresh raw beef. I will miss sharing craft ideas and the cooking/canning tips she gave me over the years.

“ Jan and I worked side by side for 16 years as farmers wives. She brought back my Favorite type of slides that my girls call my Jesus shoes, I've already told them (my girls) I want them on my feet at the time of my own passing. Not only did we help on the family farm but we're together most every day whether through farming or in the butcher shop. If we got a rainy day it could be us going to Hanson Ky to the outlet mall that no longer exists or to Kohl's. She will be missed by many and I am thankful I have such wonderful memories of just she and I. My girls will always remember a flick on their forehead got rolling their eyes

I don't know where I can ever get another kuchen as well as she could make them. Rest in Peace my sweet lady 💔💔💔🥰💔💔💔
