“ I always like to be first but not when it comes to things like this. Jared...it's been a long time since we last talked. After playing some pick up ball at USI, we had a lengthy talk about life and the future. I am proud of the life you built. Beautiful wife, wonderful kids. You were always a winner (even at my expense). In my sermons, I still talk about the Mater Dei teams and all their accomplishments. They were a united, winning team, truly an inspiration to anyone seeking success. Now it's time for the team to rally around the family and show lots of love and support. Anyone who knows me, knows I do not post stuff like this. But Jared is too hard to not talk about- he was always the best looking, best athlete, and Mr. Chill on and off the court or field. Jared... I miss you! Even the follow through in my face. Until we meet again, thank you for all the memories.
