“ So sad to learn of Jayne's passing, but I know she's in a better place. She always seemed to have a smile on her face - even when she didn't feel her best. What a gift to us that was! I wish circumstances were different so I could hug y'all and express my sympathies. Glad I had the chance to see her this summer at the Mater Dei Band yard sales. Not sure if she mentioned it, but we prayed together at the July sale - just a short time after Aunt Rita had passed away. Jayne said she was ready to "see Mom again." I wished her peace and strength and we both cried. I'm glad we had that moment. I'll cherish it.
