“ Sharon, Gerald, Janet and family. My heart aches for you right now. It will never be the same seeing a tractor or a combine off in the distance during planting or harvest season. He may not have known it but he was an inspiration to some people. He took his time at everything he did and did it right. These days you dont see that very often. Your son will be greatly missed

“ Jeff's welcoming smile and love for his family, church, and others always made us smile. His leadership and work on the farm was an asset to his dear family and a joy for him to labor over during good or bad weather days. We need good farmers and he was the best! May he have peace in the palm of God's hands forever. Love, Diane and Larry Zoller
