We are so sorry for your loss. When we heard the news about Jeffrey, our hearts were broken. I did not know Jeffrey very well, but if he was anything like his sisters Emily and Allison, he was a great person and will be sorely missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Jeff has a special place in our hearts. When we car-pooled to EJFL football practices (Jeff was around 12), our entire family wanted to go. We couldn't wait to hear what Jeff would say when we picked him up from practice. Jeff held a captive audience and entertained us the entire trip. Jeff made a ritual to perform his "shake your bon-bon" dance when the trip was done and the whole van would cheer! We will miss him. Thank you for making such an open, honest and fun-loving person. He has made a family memory we will treasure forever!###imported-begin##Jayne and Mike Allerellie ###imported-end##

“ Mr. and Mrs. Pfister, Allie, and Emily,

I'm so sorry to hear about Jeff; everyone knows he was such a sweet guy, and I wish so badly that I could be there for you today. I can't even imagine what you are going through, and I wish somehow I could take away some of your pain. The hundreds of people that come to support today and tomorrow are just a small sign of the lives that Jeff has touched. He will continue to live through all of these people and all of the memories you have together. Stay strong because Jeff wouldn't want you to hurt. Most of all, know that everyone is thinking of and praying for you and that God is with you always! Love and miss you so much!

“ Dear Sandy and Richard,

When I think about Jeffrey, I can see his sweet smile. Any conversations that we had always started with a smile. He had a kind spirit. I am so sorry you have to experience the pain of losing Jeffrey. I know that pain all too well. I wish I could tell you the pain will stop, but that would be a lie. I can promise this....it will ease up...in time my dear friends. Know that I am praying for you both and the girls, actually, the entire family, that God will carry you all through this and the next few days.

I will leave you with this...It brought me a sense of peace which I hope does you also.

“ Dear Sandy, Richard, Alli & Emily,
I do not know the right words to say to express how deeply sorry I am for losing your wonderful son & brother, Jeffrey. I have great memories of him that I will never forget. My kids loved him also. They always loved when "Jeffrey was around". I remember when he went with us to see David before he had to go to Iraq. On the way home, he slept practically the whole way home. I never knew anyone that could sleep that much in one day. I am very thankful I got to see him just a couple months ago when he came to my house to go kayaking with Courtney. Again, you have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Brenda Will##imported-end##
