

Jennifer J. Black

March 12, 1985 - October 28, 2020

Jennifer J. Black, 35, of Evansville, passed away Wednesday, October 28, 2020 as the result of a traffic accident near Flora, IL.

Jennifer worked as a paralegal after graduating from Ivy Tech in 2010 and was a member of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society and on the Dean's List. She cherished more than anything in this world being a mother for her two children, Aaryanna and Ava. Jennifer adored crafts, decorating everything and anything for each holiday and painting anything she could get her hands on. Additionally, She loved shopping at Target and burning delicious candles. Every year Jennifer and her husband, Steve, would celebrate their love with a weekend at a music festival for their marriage anniversary which occurred in October. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her well.

Surviving Jennifer are her husband of ten years, Steve Black; two daughters, Aaryanna Adams and Ava Black; her mother and stepfather, Debra and Doug Small; two sisters, Crystal and Cindy and her father-in-law and mother-in-law, Maynard and Lori Briles.

Jennifer was preceded in death by her father, Randy Lee Mosby and by her loving great grandmother, Barbara Russell.

We love you dearly Jennifer, always and forever.

There will be a gathering of family and friends at the Black's home held at a later date. Pierre Funeral Home is assisting the family.

Condolences may be made online at www.pierrefuneralhome.com.

“ I'm still in disbelief. I keep looking at my text messages and your facebook thinking by some miracle that none of this is real. We shared what some would say was a dark sense of humor but hey we sure did laugh! I'm thankful I was too lazy to delete text messages bc I can go back and read them and have a good laugh. I will forever think of you each time I see the bargain isle in Target and every time I warm my blueberry cheesecake. Thank you for the honest friendship, lunches at work, belly laughs and just being you. You are missed.
