“ Jerry and I were in Homeroom together for all 4 years at Reitz. We were always great friends and had lots of discussions about the girls he dated (and the ones who wanted to date him) and the guys I dated. Prayers of comfort to his wife and family. Rest in Peace, my friend.

“ Jerry and I met in the 8th grade at Highland school. He always called me a da hippie because I always had long hair. Funny thing, after we became adults I kept my hair short and Jerry let his grow. We spent our summers riding our bikes to Weslake to swim and check out the girls. When we were 15 Walter and Evelyn went out of town so Jerry and I thought we'd be cute and take their car cruising at North Park. Little did we know Walter had written down the mileage before he left, oh boy. So many good memories. Rest in Peace brother, much love.
