“ Jo Ann Causey was larger than life. She wasn't afraid to tell you what she thought about a situation or even you as a person. Sometimes, you just had to laugh at her quick wit. I met Jo Ann when she was the secretary for Trinity Lutheran Church, and soon she found out that I was related to her late husband, Lowell. We had many lunches along with Martha Hage, ELS Secretary, full of laughter and gossip. I will miss this lady's sarcasm, but most of all, the steadfast friendship over the last 40 years. Love you, and miss you.

“ Joann was like another mother to me growing up. I was at their house sometimes as much as mine. I will always remember her wit and dry sense of humor and no one around could touch her gift at playing trivial pursuit & jeopardy :)

“ I grew up with Jo Ann's kids, but I really got to know her when we worked together at Trinity. Beneath her tough exterior, she was a sweet woman who genuinely cared about people. She was smart as a whip and still makes me laugh when I think of her. Peace to her family.

“ I am Jo Ann's cousin but she was also my friend, she lived with us for a while when I was a kid and I will always remember her and my Mom laughing for hours on end. Jo Ann's sarcasm was always there and was always appreciated in our home. Aging and illness might have taken her health and finally her life but it couldn't take her away her sarcastic humor until her life was gone. When I remember back about Jo Ann it will not be about her in the last year of her life where pain and illness takes much of life's joy, but when she was young and healthy and faced life head on. You knew that every time you met up with her you would laugh a lot and she would probably insult you but in a loving way, I know you are not supposed to have favorites but I feel the same as my Mom and Dad felt about her, Jo Ann you were our favorite.
