“ Sandy, I am so heartbroken to just now hear of John David's passing. He and his parents were very kind to me while I worked at Lake Barkley. I remember going with JD to Mark Lovely's office and telling him what a good swimmer he was and to hire him. We were working at the beach when I saw you and a friend and we walked down to your blankets and the rest is history. God bless, Joel S. Ransdell

“ Sandy and family, I was shocked to see John’s obituary in the paper. So sorry for your loss. I remember renting 2 houses from Dave and Martha, spending time at the Barkley Lake house back in the 70’s & 80’s, Charlie and John getting in trouble together. So many memories. May John Rest In Peace.

“ Sandy and family, I was so sorry to read the news about John passing. John was always very friendly whenever I would see him at your mom and dads. Mrs Walsh always,always had nothing but the best to say about John. He was a terrific man and always hard worker, willing to help always. Your family is in thought by the friends and neighbors on Lohoff who thought so much of the Walsh's and your family. Rest easy John
