

Joseph L. Goebel

October 13, 1936 - June 6, 2020

Joseph L. Goebel, 83, of rural Evansville, passed away Saturday, June 6, 2020 at his home.

Joe was born October 13, 1936 in Mt. Vernon, IN to the late Joseph B. and Amelia (Winiger) Goebel. He was an entrepreneur and had owned and operated Goebel Brothers, Inc., Pump and Irrigation Supply as well as several other businesses. Joe was a Kentucky Colonel; served in the Army National Guard and as the president of the Water Well Drillers Association. Joe loved antique cars and was also a member of the Model A Club and Model T Club.

Surviving Joe are his wife of 59 years, Betty (Ricketts) Goebel; a daughter, Angie (Sammy) Morales; son, Joseph "Joey" (April) Goebel; sisters, Barbara Kent, Rosella Rust, Isabell Johnson, Jeanne Cruce and Margaret Buechler; brothers, Tony and Greg Goebel; eight grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

In addition to his parents, Joe was preceded in death by sisters, Sr. Mary Walter, O.S.B., Martha McAlpine and Joan Stolz and by a brother, Ben Goebel.

Visitation will be private at Pierre Funeral Home. There will be a public service celebrating Joe's life held at a later date.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to Asera Care Hospice for their kind and compassionate care.

“ Dear Betty and Joey and Angie and family.

Paula and I have a great love for you all that goes back to when Joey and Angie joined the family back in Kentucky.

We watched you grow up and enjoyed many good times with Joe and Betty.

And when you moved away we looked forward to our visits to Owensboro and to Evansville, especially the Church Bierstubes.

Those were such fun.

And we are so sorry we can't come out in person, but please know we are with you in spirit and in prayer. Much love to you all.
